Alex Kenji

303Lovers/Hotfingers

Alessandro Bacci, aka Alex Kenji, has come a long way since he started out in the dance industry over 10 years ago. Now one of the hottest properties in world dance music, this 28 year old Italian is currently one of the biggest selling dance artists around, co-owns two extremely successful record labels and is a DJ whose sets are now notorious all over the globe.

Through his infectious blend of house music, Alex Kenji's techy and progressive style has been continuously growing in stature and over the last 2 years his releases have gone on to storm dance charts all over the world. His releases "Up", "Adelante" and "A Lot Of" were 3 of the biggest selling releases of the last year with each track reaching #1 in the Beatport Top 100. these and other tracks such as "Down", "Ytaca", "Vertico" and "Colors" have all charted in the likes of Beatport and DMC US House Chart, and have received endless support from BBC Radio1. Now rightly in the global spotlight, he counts the likes of Pete Tong, JUSTICE, Erick Morillo, Deadmau5, Kaskade, Eric Prydz, Deep Dish, Tocadisco, Jason Nevins, Hernan Cattaneo, Chris Lake, John Dahlback, Roger Sanchez amongst his biggest fans....and the list keeps growing.

His DJ sets offer an impeccable house/tech-house selection ranging from deep grooves to more techno oriented tunes all designed to rock the dance-floor to its foundations. He has performed all over Italy, Brasil, Mexico, UK, Russia, Ukraine, Switzerland, Portugal and is adding to this list as we speak. Outside the club, Alex is co-owner with Manuel De La Mare & Marshall of 303Lovers and Hotfingers record labels; these brands have sold more then 90,000 units on music web stores, mostly via Beatport since first launching in August 2007.

Alex Kenji is now considered by many to be among the few elite names within world house music. With over 50 releases to his name, 2 record labels going from strength to strength and a DJ career that is rocking every corner of the globe, Alex Kenji is ready to make you move!
